

Minutes - Town Advisory Committee on Senior Services - November 3, 2008

The Town of Nassau Committee on Senior Services met November 3, 2008 at Nassau Town Hall. Six committee members were present: Susan Hains, Ray Seney, Fran Hamblin, Elsie Rathbun, Jeri Stanley and Olga Krupinski.

Old Business:

Last month's minutes were reviewed by the committee, no comments.

Senior Services Community Festival was discussed. Information tables will include:

- Commission on Economic Opportunity--Weatherization, HEAP, and Foster Grandparent Programs,
- Nassau Free Library--Wii Software demonstration and Book Club sign-up,
- Converter Box for non-digital TVs--Coupon and other services,
- Rensselaer County Office for the Aging--Senior Services,
- Nassau Seniors Club,
- ROUSE home repair services,
- ConcernsU Program,
- Trip Options for Seniors, and
- The Town of Nassau Bicentennial Committee Historical Buildings Slide Show will be presented.

Discussion:

Olga Krupinski offered to supply information on Medicare coverage for durable medical equipment. Fran Hamblin will contact AARP for additional information on Senior services and activities. Sue Hains will contact the Eddy to see what they may have available for Seniors. Fitness classes for Seniors will be researched with focus on Tai Chi and aerobics.

Sue will edit and copy the invitation flyer. Also, mail it to area churches and email it to the committee; we will post it around the community. Ray Seney printed mailing labels for the Seniors 65+. Elsie, Jeri & Sue will prepare and stuff envelopes for a Saturday, Nov-8, mailing.

When the location is voted on, it will be set up, decorated -- tables will be ringed around the room for the various activities. Desserts and beverages will be available -- Olga has offered to obtain cookies and beverages; Ray and Fran offered to bake. Ray will contact Roasters Whim for coffee, etc. Rides - Call for Rides will be added to the flyer.

Announcement: Next committee meeting will be held Monday, November 24, 2008, 6:30pm at the Nassau Town Hall.
