

Hoag's Orchard Cemetery (#17)

Data Source: Notes from Sylvester's "History of a Rensselaer County."

Directions:

The cemetery was located on what is now Elm Street on the left a short distance from the Village. It was behind a building now used as a funeral home. It was destroyed. Some sources believe bodies were moved to Nassau-Schodack Cemetery.

Name:	Section:	Date of Birth:	Date of Death:	Age at Death:
Castle, Gideon		1745	19 Jun 1836	91y
Wife: Abigail Castle, Comment: Revolutionary War Veteran. He probably enlisted in Connecticut, listed on the Honor Roll of Amenia, Dutchess County, New York. He was probably moved to Nassau-Schodack Cemetery (#24) when Hoag's Orchard was "destroyed."
Phillips, Isaac		27 Feb 1741	26 May 1830
Wife: Abigail... (1), Fanny Burch (2), Comment: Revolutionary War Veteran. He was possibly born in Danbury, Connecticut, and he died in Nassau, New York.. Serving in Colonel Wessenfall's Westchester County Regiment.
Tobias, Thomas		1747	21 Aug 1815
Comment: Revolutionary War Veteran. He served in the 6 th Regiment of Dutchess County Militia with Land Bounty Rights.				